Welcome	Pastor Paul
Prayer and Responsive Reading	Pastor Paul

LEADER:
How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity!
It is like precious oil poured on the head, running down on the beard, running down on Aaron's beard, down on the collar of his robe.
³ It is as if the dew of Hermon were falling on Mount Zion.
For there the LORD bestows his blessing, even life forevermore.

CONGREGATION:
Praise the LORD, all you servants of the LORD who minister by night in the house of the LORD. Lift up your hands in the sanctuary and praise the LORD.
³ May the LORD bless you from Zion, he who is the Maker of heaven and earth.
Your name, LORD, endures forever, your renown, LORD, through all generations.

LEADER:
The idols of the nations are silver and gold, made by human hands.
They have mouths, but cannot speak, eyes, but cannot see.
They have ears, but cannot hear, nor is there breath in their mouths.
Those who make them will be like them, and so will all who trust in them.

CONGREGATION
All you Israelites, praise the LORD; house of Aaron, praise the LORD;
House of Levi, praise the LORD; you who fear him, praise the LORD.
Praise be to the LORD from Zion, to him who dwells in Jerusalem.

ALL:
Praise the LORD.

Dear Brothers and Sisters of First Baptist,

It is hard to believe it is one year since Sherri and I first worshipped with you on the trial sermon weekend. We truly witnessed God moving as He brought us to you. That weekend will remain a fond memory. From the very beginning we have enjoyed such wonderful fellowship and you have made us feel so welcome- even though we came to you as Yankees! Thank you for all the big and little ways you have expressed southern hospitality. It is a real thing!

As a church and nation, we had no idea what the LORD had in store for 2020, though facing challenges and losses as a church, God has been faithful! HE is working. We have seen God's hand moving in our midst and to Him belongs all the glory. Our outreach through radio and social media has been strong. And it is encouraging to see attendance at worship coming back once again. Prayerfully, all our church gatherings will resume soon. Of great comfort is this reality: the gospel of Jesus cannot be stopped- no matter what is happening in this world!

Let us all expect great things from God in the year ahead. Let us pray for revival in our own hearts, our church, our community, state, and nation.

In the service of Jesus Christ,
Pastor Paul
