Morning Message: Faith in the Savior of the World

Scriptures: John 4:39-52; Psalm 119:9,10, 14-16; Rev. 3:14-15, 19-20; John 4:41; Isaiah 52:7; John 2:23-25; Acts 1:8; Romans 1:16-17, 10:11-15; Hebrews 11:1-6.

When we talk about Christianity. When we think about being a Christian. The heart of it is faith. Faith that Jesus was who He claimed to be, Faith in his sacrifice for your sins on the cross, faith in his resurrection- which leads to the believer's resurrection from the dead. To be born again, to go to heaven- you must believe in the Savior of the World- Jesus.

The faith of the Samaritan Woman, led to action which led to an entire town being transformed!

What was the evidence of their faith? They wanted Jesus to stay- they wanted to listen to His Words!

This is the task the disciples would have placed upon them when Jesus left- it is the task you and I have today- either speaking truth of Jesus or assisting in that mission! It is a world-wide mission. Jesus is not just the God of the Jew or Christian- He is God. He is the creator of all the world, and all the world is accountable to Him!
Isaiah 52:7; Acts 1:8

Jesus, in his ministry started with a Jewish Leader, Nicodemus- in Jerusalem. (John 3:1-21) He then proceeds to Judea baptizing (John 3:22-36), He enters Samaria and Evangelizes the Woman at the Well (John 4:1-42). And Now encounters a Gentile (one from the Uttermost parts of the world)- modeling to his disciples what they will eventually do themselves!

The royal official simply takes Jesus at His Word! A sign of true faith! He and his household believe and are saved, it's all about believing in the Savior of the World!

God is with You Always

And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." Matthew 28:20

It is good that there is One who never changes, and who is always with us. It is good that there is one stable rock standing strong against the crashing waves of the sea of life. My friend, in times of struggle, don't trust rusting, moth-eaten, decaying treasures. Instead, set your heart on God, who is forever faithful to you. Don't build your house on the moving quicksand of a deceitful world, but found your hopes on this rock, which, despite shifting sands, will stand immovably secure. Store up your treasure in the only secure cabinet. Store your jewels where you can never lose them. Put everything you own in Christ. Pour your affections on Him alone, all your hope in His merit, all your trust in His Holy blood, and all your joy in His presence. In doing so, you can laugh at loss, and defy destruction.

Remember that all the flowers in the world's garden fade at the right time. Death's black extinguisher will eventually put out your candle, ending your life in this world. How sweet it will be to have sunlight when the candle is gone! The dark flood must someday roll between you and all you have. So, wed your heart to Him who will never leave you. Trust yourself with Him who will go with you through the black and surging current of death's stream, and who will land you safely on the heavenly shore. Then you will sit with Him in heavenly places forever. If you are experiencing sorrow, tell your troubles to the Friend who sticks closer than anyone else ever could. Trust all your cares to Him who never can be taken from you, who will never leave you, and who will never let you leave Him. Remember that "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever" (Hebrews 13:8)

"I am with you always" is enough for me to live on, and enough to sustain me even if all others forsake me. How does God sustain you in difficult times? Have you been spending regular time in prayer with Him?
