Lighting of the Peace Advent Candle Jim and Susan Sawyer
Today we relight the candle of HOPE and we light the candle for the Second Sunday in Advent. This is the candle of PEACE. As we prepare for the second coming of Jesus, may we remember that Jesus is our HOPE and our PEACE.			_
Hear the Word of the LORD. For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Isaiah 9:6			_ _
Let us Pray: Heavenly Father, we thank you for the peace that we have by faith in your son Jesus
Christ. Grant that we may find peace in our hearts as we celebrate the birth of Jesus and look forward to His return. Help us to follow the path of peace and live as peacemakers. Lord, let us remember that you are the giver of lasting peace and that you are always with us. AMEN.	Closing Hymn#251	"It Came Upon the Midnight Clear" vv.1,4

Are You Ever Distrurbed? By Oswald Chambers

Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you.- John 14:27

There are times when our peace is based upon ignorance, but when we awaken to the facts of life, inner peace is impossible unless it is received from Jesus. When Our Lord speaks peace, He makes peace, His words are ever "spirit and life." Have I ever received what Jesus speaks? "My peace I give unto you" — it is a peace which comes from looking into His face and realizing His undisturbedness.

Are you painfully disturbed just now, distracted by the waves and billows of God's providential permission, and having, as it were, turned over the boulders of your belief, are you still finding no well of peace or joy or comfort; is all barren? Then look up and receive the undisturbedness of the Lord Jesus. Reflected peace is the proof that you are right with God because you are at liberty to turn your mind to Him. If you are not right with God, you can never turn your mind anywhere but on yourself. If you allow anything to hide the face of Jesus Christ from you, you are either disturbed or you have a false security.

Are you looking unto Jesus now, in the immediate matter that is pressing and receiving from Him peace? If so, He will be a gracious benediction of peace in and through you. But if you try to worry it out, you obliterate Him and deserve all you get. We get disturbed because we have not been considering Him. When one confers with Jesus Christ the perplexity goes, because He has no perplexity, and our only concern is to abide in Him. Lay it all out before Him, and in the face of difficulty, bereavement, and sorrow, hear Him say — "Let not your heart be troubled."
