Wisdom from Peanuts.

I have always loved the Peanuts Comic Strip. Charlie Brown, Snoopy, Linus, Lucy and the rest of the gang endlessly stuck in their elementary school years. The comic strip is created by Charles Schultz. Over Christmas I received two Peanuts calendars. One a tear off daily calendar and the other a wall calendar. I will enjoy them both throughout 2022

Recently, I have enjoyed the storyline of the tear-off calendar, in which Peppermint Patty, tomboy that she is, is attempting to buck her schools new dress code- requiring girls to wear a dress. She is not happy about it- ignores the rule and ends up being called to go before the school board- feeling inadequate to defend herself, she asks snoopy, the beagle to be her attorney. The entire thing is very funny- Snoopy of course is not all that great of an attorney and she loses the case. Her punishment for breaking the rules is that she must spend lunch hour at school reading the constitution each day. We might all do well to do that!

When a person ends up in legal trouble, an attorney can be of great help! A good attorney many times can get people off the hook- even when they are clearly guilty. An attorney is very important for someone who is innocent as well! Now you and I may or may not stand before a judge in this life, but one day everyone will stand before God, the great magistrate of the universe and we will stand before him, without a slick attorney. And we will give an account for our lives. If we have Jesus in our life, HIS goodness is credited to us. But if we don't, it is our goodness upon which we will be tried. And the Bible says, "there is no one righteous, no one who seeks God." Those without Christ will be found guilty- and will have to face an eternity of punishment. But for the one who believes in Jesus as Lord and Savior- they will be found not guilty, on account of Christ's sacrifice on the cross. Trust in him today. I'm happy to say that Charles Schultz, the creator of Peanuts professed of His faith in Jesus as His Lord and Savior and is now with the Lord. I look forward to one day meeting the creator of Peanuts- who gave me a laugh from time to time all throughout my life.
