Matt. 6:25,33 "Therefore, I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothes? But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well."

In Times Like These

A day at the beach.

We enjoy going to the beach. We get there as often as possible, and we never tire of it. On one of our recent Saturdays at Jeanettes Pier we were about half-way through our day when a few families began setting up their beach gear right next to us. It was obvious these families had travelled some distances to enjoy the week together, and as we witnessed their gathering and greeting one another we noted that the children in every family were girls! Not a boy in the bunch! I chuckled when I saw those three or four dads setting up beach gear and leading their families outnumbered by at least a factor of four! They and their wives were blowing up beach toys, getting surfboards ready, putting on sunscreen and dealing with all the stuff parents must when getting kids ready for a day at the beach. But it wasn't long before those kids were having a ball! As they played, I wondered how long it would be before fussing and arguing got started. However, over the next few hours, there was none of that, we just saw kids simply having a great day. We did not hear any disrespect between the kids and parents, and no one had their heads buried in their smartphone- not even the adults! For a moment I thought I was living in the 1990's before technology took over the world. Irony: Many people go to the beach and bury their head in a phone instead of their toes in the sand! But not these families, they were in the present, enjoying their day and one another. This reminds me of Psalm 133:1 which states, "How good and pleasant it is when God's people live together in unity!" And I say, Amen, we need more of it. Pastor Paul
