Sermon : The Good Ancient Paths pt 10. "Pause and Review"
Scriptures: Jer. 6:16-19, 21; Num. 6:22-26; Prov. 14:30a; Is. 59:1-2,7-11-15; Psalm 85:10; John 16:33; 2 Cor. 10:3-5; Jude 10; Ex. 20:1-12; Is. 48:17-18; Is. 30:18

When I was in school as a child, I loved it when the teacher said that we were going to take a whole class period to review for the next days test. The only thing better was a impromptu study hall! For a couple reasons- because I knew I was not going to study at night- plus, I might be able to just check out for the next 45 minutes! Today we are going to Pause and Review where we have come on our journey walking on the Ancient Path of God. But don't check out- and please make sure you are studying at home! _____
The paths of God lead us to be blessed with peace.

The first step on the good path is to receive Jesus as Lord and Savior. Once doing that, to enjoy peace we must follow in the ways of Jesus. Who fulfilled the Law for us. _____

If you are lacking the peace that God desires you to have- commit today to move toward Him. Maybe you need to believe in Jesus for the first time. Or maybe you need to return to the Ancient Ways of God. _____
